II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

South Portland Police have gone out of their way to attempt to make me look like a criminal. I've had a gun pulled on me when I called the cops, multiple officers refuse to take complaints, the officer who pulled a gun on me told my wife if she told him I hit her he could arrest me. South Portland Housing constantly harassed me, and South Portland Police refused to take a report, or stop it. Small elementary school employees filed multiple false police reports, and told my wife to file a false PFA. Both Small and South Portland Police assisted my wife in obtaining a PFA after I asked for help. The South Portland Police lied in the whole police report. Every officer lied. My daughters teacher said she was scared of me, and the principal said I was out front yelling at kids. The principal
